

My quality of life has been enormously improved by Indiana's Telephone Privacy law and I urge the FCC to do nothing that would lessen the protection I now receive. Before Indiana's law, I received sometimes two and three phone calls each evening. Now, thankfully, I receive none. It has really been very, very positive. Please insure that Indiana's law stands as is. With thanks, Mary Ellen Brown